12 SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION,
13 Plaintiff,
14 vs.
15 KARLHEINZ REDEKOPP,
16 Defendant.

Civil Action No. _____
COMPLAINT

18 Plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission (“the Commission”) alleges:

19 SUMMARY OF THE ACTION

20 1. This case involves a financial reporting fraud committed by defendant Karlheinz
21 Redekopp, the former Chief Financial Officer of International Commercial Television, Inc.
22 (“ICTV” or the “Company”), a marketer of health and beauty products headquartered in 23 Bainbridge Island, Washington. From February 2007 to June 2008, Redekopp fraudulently
24 recognized revenue and incorrectly recorded product returns, causing ICTV to materially 25 overstate revenue and net income in periodic reports filed with the Commission during a six-
26 quarter period. Collectively, ICTV overstated revenue and net income by $3.7 million and $3.9
27 million, respectively. As a result of the fraud, ICTV reported net income for each fiscal period, 28 when in reality the company had suffered net losses.

2. In 2007, ICTV forged a new and important relationship with the Home Shopping Network (“HSN”), a nationally recognized televised shopping network. From the inception of the relationship through June 2008, Redekopp prematurely and fraudulently recognized revenue on at least eight purported sales to HSN totaling $3.9 million, violating the Company’s own accounting policies as well as numerous revenue recognition criteria under Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (“GAAP”).

3. Redekopp's improper accounting for HSN sales was driven by a motivation to bolster ICTV's quarter-end and year-end sales numbers. Of the eight HSN orders improperly recognized as revenue by Redekopp, at least three sales totaling $3 million were recognized on or close to the last day of the period. In another instance, Redekopp caused ICTV to recognize a "sale" to HSN near the end of 2007 for a product that had not passed HSN's quality control testing and was never sold.

4. Redekopp also failed to properly recognize revenue and returns on sales made directly to end users via infomercials produced by the Company. Among other failures, Redekopp improperly recognized revenue on these sales prior to expiration of a free trial period in violation of GAAP, failed to establish a return allowance, and significantly underreported actual returns ICTV received.

5. The Commission seeks an order enjoining Redekopp from future violations of the securities laws, requiring him to pay a civil monetary penalty, and barring him from serving as an officer or director of a public company.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. The Commission brings this action pursuant to Section 20(b) of the Securities Act of 1933 (“Securities Act”) [15 U.S.C. § 77t(b)] and Section 21(d) of the Securities Exchange Act (“Exchange Act”) [15 U.S.C. §§ 78u(d)].

7. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to Section 22 of the Securities Act [15 U.S.C. § 77v(a)] and Sections 21(e) and 27 of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. §§ 78u(e) and 78aa]. Redekopp, directly or indirectly, has made use of the means and instrumentalities of interstate commerce, of the mails, or of the facilities of a national securities exchange, in connection with the acts, practices and courses of business alleged in this complaint.

8. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to Section 22 of the Securities Act [15 U.S.C. § 77v] and Section 27 of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. § 78aa]. Certain of the transactions, acts, practices and courses of conduct alleged herein occurred within the Western District of Washington.

9. Assignment to the Tacoma Division is appropriate pursuant to Local Rule 5(e)(1) because a substantial part of the events that gave rise to the claims alleged herein occurred in Kitsap County.

DEFENDANT

10. Karlheinz Redekopp, age 40, resides in Vancouver, Canada. At the time of the events alleged herein, Redekopp served as ICTV's Chief Financial Officer. Redekopp resigned from ICTV in August 2008.

RELEVANT ENTITY

11. International Commercial Television, Inc. is a Nevada corporation headquartered in Bainbridge Island, Washington. The Company's common stock is registered with the Commission under Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. §78l]. ICTV sells health and beauty products internationally via infomercials and through various televised shopping networks.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

A. Background and Applicable Revenue Recognition Policies

12. According to the Company's SEC filings, ICTV is a marketer of consumer retail goods, specializing in "fountain of youth" health and beauty products it owns or holds the right to sell. The Company's best-selling product is the Derma Wand, a skin care appliance that, according to ICTV's SEC filings, purportedly "reduces fine lines and wrinkles and improves overall skin appearance."

13. ICTV sells product through two main channels: (1) direct sales to end users via infomercials produced by the Company (“direct sales”), and (2) distribution through third-

1 party distributors for sell-through to end users (“sell-through sales”). ICTV’s distributors
 2 include televised shopping networks such as HSN.

3 14. As a public company, ICTV’s financial statements filed with the Commission are 4 required to be prepared in accordance with GAAP. As ICTV’s CFO, Redekopp was responsible 5 for certifying, among other things, that these financial statements were prepared in accordance 6 with GAAP.

7 15. Under GAAP, revenue must be realized or realizable and earned before it can 8 be recognized. GAAP guidance provides that revenue generally is realized and earned when 9 persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, delivery has occurred, the seller’s price is fixed 10 or determinable, and collectibility is reasonably assured.

11 16. GAAP also provides that, when a right of return exists, revenue cannot be 12 recognized at the time of sale unless, inter alia, the amount of future returns can be 13 reasonably estimated and an offsetting allowance established.

14 B. Redekopp Improperly Recognized HSN Revenue Prior to Sell-Through or Delivery
 15 to End Users

16 1. The HSN Relationship

17 17. In 2007, ICTV signed a contract with HSN, one of the top-grossing television
 18 shopping networks in the United States. This alliance with HSN helped to promote ICTV’s
 19 product and brand awareness, increasing ICTV’s reported net sales by 97% over year-end 2006.
 20 In total, during 2007, ICTV’s reported net sales, including HSN sales and direct sales, increased 21 by 280% from 2006.

22 18. Under the terms of the initial contract, HSN issued a purchase order, retrieved 23 the product, sold the product to end users, and paid ICTV after the sell-through. HSN had the 24 right to return any unsold product, or any product returned to HSN by HSN’s customers (i.e., 25 the end users) within a specified period of time.

26 19. However, only the first HSN sale was made per the terms of the contract
 27 described in paragraph 16, above. All other HSN sales were made through a “drop-ship”
 28 contract entered into between ICTV and HSN in or about May 2007. Under the drop-ship

1 contract, which Redekopp signed on ICTV's behalf, HSN did not purchase the product itself,
 2 but instead facilitated sales to end users. Generally, HSN sent ICTV written requests to pre-
 3 order product that would be sold during future HSN television broadcasts. ICTV stored the 4 product at ICTV's third-party fulfillment warehouse until HSN sold the product on the air.
 5 After HSN sold the product to its customers, ICTV's warehouse shipped the product to the 6 HSN customers, and HSN subsequently sent payment to ICTV. ICTV retained title to the 7 product until the product was sold and shipped to the end users. HSN did not guarantee the 8 purchase of any product, and any unsold product remained under the ownership of ICTV.
 9 The contract also allowed HSN to return any product from its customers up to 60 days after 10 delivery to the customer.

11 2. Redekopp Failed to Ensure Sell-Through Had Occurred Prior to Revenue 12 Recognition

13 20. From the first quarter of 2007 through the second quarter of 2008, Redekopp 14 prematurely recognized revenue on ICTV's sales to HSN, before HSN sold through to its 15 customers and before the right of return expired, in violation of GAAP.

16 21. In February 2007, ICTV received a preliminary order worksheet from HSN for 17 1,799 Derma Wand units, to be sold under the terms of the contract described in paragraph 14, 18 above, for approximately $89,000. The three-page document stated in large, bold type across 19 the top of each page: "This is not a purchase order!" Although HSN had not yet issued a 20 final purchase order or sold the product on the air to its customers, Redekopp caused ICTV to 21 recognize the Company's first HSN "sale" for the full $89,000 during the first quarter of 22 2007. HSN did not issue a final purchase order for the 1,799 units – and did not sell any 23 product to its customers or pay ICTV for any such sales – until the following quarter.

24 22. In the second quarter of 2007, HSN began to issue drop-ship requests. Despite 25 knowing that HSN did not itself purchase the product and that any payment to ICTV was 26 contingent on HSN's sell-through to end users, Redekopp recognized revenue on or about the 27 date of the HSN requests, for the full amount stated in each request.

28

1 23. Redekopp failed to ensure that, by the end of each quarter, HSN had sold through 2 the units for which revenue was recognized during that period. For example, on June 12 and 3 June 15, 2007, Redekopp recognized revenue for 10,000 Derma Wand units collectively totaling 4 nearly $500,000. Yet by quarter-end, HSN had sold just 2,400 units for less than $120,000. As 5 a result, ICTV reported revenue to investors for sales which had not been completed that 6 quarter.

7 24. Redekopp's accounting of HSN sales violated revenue recognition criteria
 8 under GAAP. Delivery of the goods had not occurred prior to revenue recognition.
 9 Collectibility of the receivable was not reasonably assured, given that product had not been 10 sold through and HSN had the right to return any unsold product. And, with respect to drop 11 ship sales through HSN, there was no persuasive evidence of an arrangement, as HSN had not 12 sold through to its customers at the time Redekopp recognized the sales, and ICTV retained 13 ownership of any unsold product.

14 25. Redekopp's accounting also violated ICTV's revenue recognition policy, 15 which Redekopp drafted and which generally mirrored GAAP requirements.

16 26. Redekopp knew that ICTV would not be paid by HSN until sell-through, that 17 HSN had the right to return the product, and that ICTV retained ownership of any unsold 18 product.

19 3. Redekopp Deliberately Recognized Revenue to Boost ICTV's Bottom Line

20 27. Redekopp's accounting treatment was driven in part by a motivation to improve 21 ICTV's sales numbers at the end of accounting periods. Specifically, of the eight HSN orders 22 improperly recognized as revenue by Redekopp totaling $3.9 million, at least three sales totaling 23 $3 million were recognized on or close to the last day of the period. Additionally, Redekopp
 24 caused ICTV to recognize revenue on a product that later failed HSN's quality control testing 25 and was never sold.

26 ///
 27 ///
 28 ///

1 The September 30, 2007 Transaction

2 28. In the third quarter of 2007, Redekopp recognized a 20,775-unit sale for 3 $1,028,000 on the last day of the quarter when virtually none of these units had been sold 4 through.

5 29. As a result of Redekopp's fraudulent accounting for the September 30, 2007
6 transaction, ICTV overstated net sales by 46% for the quarter on originally reported net sales
7 of $3.2 million. In addition, ICTV's originally reported net income of approximately 8 $584,000 for the period was restated to a net loss of approximately $136,000.

9 The November 2007 CellRx Transaction

10 30. In the fourth quarter of 2007, Redekopp recognized revenue for the "sale" of a 11 product that failed an HSN quality control inspection and was never actually sold to end 12 users. The receivable remained on ICTV's books until after Redekopp's resignation in 13 August 2008.

14 31. In November 2007, ICTV received a preliminary order worksheet from HSN
15 to purchase 3,500 units of a new product called Cell Rx. Once again, even though HSN had 16 not issued a final purchase order or sold any product to its customers, Redekopp recognized a
17 $94,000 "sale" in the fourth quarter of 2007. Shortly thereafter, Cell Rx failed an HSN
18 quality control inspection, and the product was never sold to HSN, or through HSN to end 19 users. Redekopp never reversed the outstanding receivable on ICTV's books despite his 20 knowledge that the product was faulty and could not be sold through HSN.

21 32. ICTV reported inflated revenue for the fourth quarter of 2007 in its Form 10-K
22 for 2007 that included the Cell Rx "sale." As with the other transactions, revenue recognition
23 was improper because under GAAP no sale had occurred.

24 The December 21, 2007 Transaction

25 33. Following the recognition of the CellRx "sale" in November 2007, Redekopp
26 sent an e-mail to ICTV executives in mid-December 2007 that indicated ICTV's fourth
27 quarter sales were "not pretty" and suggested ways to improve the situation. Included was a
28 recommendation to "get HSN to acknowledge the units we've transferred into their packaging

1 before Dec 31. . . . HSN HAS to acknowledge it as a payable to us...auditors will send 2 confirmation directly to them." ICTV executives then discussed, at Redekopp's suggestion,
 3 obtaining a traditional purchase order from HSN.

4 34. On December 21, ICTV obtained a purchase order for 20,000 Derma Wand
 5 units at the cost of $990,000. Redekopp knew that the 20,000 units would not be sold by 6 HSN until at least two quarters later. Indeed, the purchase order itself indicated a shipping
 7 date to HSN of April 1, 2008. Nevertheless, Redekopp recognized the entire $990,000 as a
 8 sale as of December 21, 2007. Ultimately, the product requested in the December 21
 9 purchase order was not shipped to HSN. Rather, ICTV shipped product to HSN's end users 10 via the drop-ship arrangement as those customers placed their orders.

11 35. As a result of Redekopp's fraudulent accounting for the CellRx transaction and 12 the December 21, 2007 transaction, ICTV overstated net sales and net income for the 12-
 13 month-period ended December 31, 2007 by $1,084,000 (or 10.6%) and $717,000 (or 95%), 14 respectively.

15 The June 30, 2008 Transaction

16 36. Despite growing anxiety over the fact that HSN had not sold through the units
 17 recognized in December 2007, Redekopp recognized yet another 20,000-unit purchase order
 18 as a "sale" shortly before his departure from the Company. In late June 2008, just weeks after 19 HSN had sold through the December 2007 units, ICTV obtained another 20,000-unit purchase
 20 order from HSN. On the final day of the quarter, even though HSN had not sold any of the 21 requested units, Redekopp recognized the entire sale for $990,000. Once again, the product
 22 was never shipped to HSN and was ultimately sold under the drop-ship arrangement after 23 quarter-end.

24 37. As a result of Redekopp's fraudulent accounting for the June 30, 2008
 25 transaction, ICTV overstated net sales by 46% for second quarter 2008 on originally reported 26 net sales of $3.1 million. In addition, ICTV's originally reported net income of approximately 27 $469,000 for the period was restated to a net loss of approximately $224,000.
 28

1 4. Redekopp Repeatedly Misrepresented the Extent to Which ICTV's Auditors
2 Had Approved His Revenue Recognition Practices

3 38. As a further indication of Redekopp's scienter, Redekopp made multiple 4 misrepresentations regarding the extent to which ICTV's outside auditors had approved his 5 revenue recognition practices.

6 39. In the fall of 2007, as ICTV attempted to secure financing from Wells Fargo,
7 Redekopp was repeatedly questioned by a Wells Fargo finance officer regarding ICTV's revenue
8 recognition practices for its sales through HSN.

9 40. On multiple occasions, Redekopp indicated to the Wells Fargo finance officer
10 that ICTV's auditors were fully satisfied with ICTV's revenue recognition practices relating to 11 the HSN sales.

12 41. In fact, at the time of his response, Redekopp had not spoken to ICTV's auditors
13 regarding ICTV's revenue recognition practices for HSN sales.

14 42. Similarly, when ICTV hired a new Chief Operating Officer in 2008, Redekopp
15 provided inconsistent explanations of ICTV's recognition practices, and falsely assured the COO
16 that ICTV's revenue recognition practices for the HSN sales were approved by ICTV's auditors.

17 5. Redekopp's Improper Accounting For HSN Sales Misled the Investing Public

18 43. As a result of Redekopp's improper accounting for HSN sales, ICTV reported
19 materially inflated revenue and net income to investors and to the Commission on Forms 10-Q
20 and 10-K from the first quarter of 2007 through the second quarter of 2008. Investors
21 determining whether to buy or sell ICTV stock were thus basing their decisions on false
22 information about ICTV's financial performance.

23 44. In each filing, Redekopp falsely certified that he had reviewed the Form 10-Q or 24 10-K and that it did not contain any untrue statements of material fact or omit to state a material 25 fact necessary to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which such 26 statements were made, not misleading.

27 45. Redekopp also made false and misleading representations to a third party 28 investment fund that purchased ICTV shares in November 2007 as part of a private placement.

1 In the Securities Purchase Agreement, signed by Redekopp on ICTV's behalf, ICTV represented
 2 that “[a]ll of the accounts receivable and net receivables of the Company are valid and 3 enforceable claims, are subject to no known set-off or counterclaim, and to the knowledge of the 4 Company are fully collectible in the normal course of business.” Redekopp knew this statement
 5 was false, because he knew that HSN’s payment to ICTV was contingent upon sell-through.

6 46. Redekopp knew or was reckless in not knowing that the statements in ICTV’s
 7 Forms 10-Q and 10-K were false and misleading because Redekopp, in his capacity as ICTV’s
 8 CFO, was directly responsible for recognizing the HSN sales that caused ICTV to overstate its 9 revenue over the six-quarter period. Redekopp also knew or was reckless in not knowing that 10 ICTV’s revenue recognition practices violated GAAP.

11 C. Redekopp Failed to Properly Recognize Revenue and Account for Returns for Its 12 Direct Sales

13 47. Redekopp also failed to properly recognize revenue and returns for the 14 Company’s direct sales (i.e., sales made directly by ICTV to end users via infomercials), 15 resulting in a material overstatement of revenue from the second quarter of 2007 through the 16 second quarter of 2008.

17 48. First, Redekopp improperly recognized revenue on direct sales prior to 18 customer acceptance. ICTV provided its direct sales customers a 30-day free trial period
 19 whereby the customer could try the ordered product prior to purchase. ICTV billed customers 20 upon expiration of the 30-day period. Although ICTV did not bill customers until expiration 21 of the trial period, Redekopp recognized revenue upon shipment of the product, before 22 expiration of the trial period.

23 49. Under GAAP, where a customer is given a trial or evaluation period for a 24 product, revenue cannot be recognized until the earlier of when the customer accepts the 25 product (as set forth in the contract with the seller or by affirmative acceptance) or the trial
 26 period has expired. Because ICTV’s direct sales customers did not accept the product prior to 27 expiration of the trial period, Redekopp’s recognition of revenue was improper.

28

1 50. Redekopp also improperly accounted for returns of product sold through the 2 Company's direct sales channels. Redekopp failed to estimate and establish a return
 3 allowance as required by GAAP, despite a disclosure in ICTV's financial statements stating
 4 that "[t]he company provides an allowance for returns based upon past experience." ICTV
 5 also disclosed in its SEC filings a historical return rate of 11 to 17%, and Redekopp
 6 anticipated 15% returns on direct sales. However, Redekopp did not establish any return
 7 allowance. Instead, Redekopp recorded returns as they were received and wrote off returns
 8 directly against current sales.

9 51. In failing to establish an allowance and instead writing off returns directly
 10 against current sales, Redekopp caused ICTV to overstate revenue on direct sales, for two 11 reasons. First, the actual returns that Redekopp recorded were significantly underreported and 12 did not reflect the actual returns received. Redekopp relied exclusively on return reports 13 received from ICTV's third-party fulfillment warehouse (which processed the direct sales and 14 returns). However, as Redekopp knew, these reports were inherently flawed due in part to the 15 warehouse's methods for updating the reports.

16 52. The second issue with Redekopp's accounting treatment, which compounded the 17 problem, was that ICTV failed to adhere to its stated 30-day return policy. ICTV accepted 18 returns at any time, a practice Redekopp knew the Company made without exception. Because 19 ICTV failed to adhere to its stated 30-day return policy and accepted returns beyond the 30-day
 20 period, Redekopp's practice of recording actual returns caused ICTV to overstate its revenue by 21 failing to offset future returns.

22 53. As a result of Redekopp's improper accounting practices for direct sales, ICTV
 23 reported inflated revenue and net income in its Forms 10-Q for the second and third quarters 24 of 2007 and its Form 10-K for fiscal year 2007. ICTV also reported inflated revenue in its 25 Forms 10-Q for the first and second quarters of 2008.

26 54. Redekopp knew or was reckless in not knowing that the statements in ICTV's
 27 Forms 10-Q and 10-K were false and misleading because Redekopp, in his capacity as ICTV's
 28

1 CFO, was directly responsible for recognizing the direct sales and returns that caused ICTV to 2 overstate its revenue and net income for that period.

3 D. ICTV Twice Restates Its Financial Statements

4 55. Redekopp resigned from ICTV on August 15, 2008. Shortly thereafter, ICTV's
 5 Chief Operating Officer and new Director of Finance (now Chief Financial Officer) discovered
 6 Redekopp's multiple improper accounting practices.

7 56. On October 31, 2008, ICTV announced that it intended to restate its historical 8 financial statements for the fiscal year ended 2007 and the first two quarters of 2008 as a 9 result of improper revenue recognition. ICTV completed its filing of amended financial 10 statements in June 2009. The restatement included a $1.4 million reduction in 2007 revenue 11 related to the HSN errors, and an $840,000 reduction in 2007 revenue related to the failure to 12 properly record direct sales returns. ICTV also reduced 2008 revenue by an additional 13 $840,000 due to the direct sales returns issue.

14 57. In April 2010, ICTV again restated its financial statements for the fiscal year 15 ended 2007. The restatement included an additional $550,000 revenue reduction related to 16 the premature recognition of direct sales revenue prior to expiration of a free trial period.

17 58. The following table reflects that the accounting errors were material to the 18 Company's financial statements:

Period	Originally Reported Net Sales	Adjustment to Net Sales	Restated Net Sales	Percentage Overstatement (Under)
FY 2007	$11,324,000	($2,836,000)	$8,488,000	33%
1Q 2008	$3,669,000	$197,000	$3,866,000	(5%)
2Q 2008	$4,282,000	($1,077,000)	$3,205,000	34%

22 59. Additionally, in all periods all originally reported net income was negated and 23 restated to a net loss as follows:

Period	Originally Reported Net Income	Restated Net (Loss)	Reduction to Reported Net Income
FY 2007	$1,475,775	($1,081,988)	($2,557,763)
1Q 2008	$109,980	($164,773)	($274,753)
2Q 2008	$260,298	($862,399)	($1,122,697)
